J. NOBLE SIMPSON

Attorney at Law

Noble Simpson is an associate attorney in Maser, Amundson & Boggio, P.A.'s Litigation Department. He practices primarily in the areas of contested wills, contested trusts, contested guardianships, contested conservatorships, and other contested probate and financial exploitation matters. Contested matters are stressful for everyone involved, but Noble supports people through this difficult process.

For five years, Noble was a high school team-teacher in Japan, teaching English grammar and writing. He now uses those skills to simplify and explain even the most complex legal subjects and court procedures without the legalese.

For Noble, litigation is the intersection of two passions: writing and arguing a case. He loves what he does. Noble spreads this love by volunteering as a judge for the Minnesota State Bar Association High School Mock Trial Program.

History of the Firm

For over 30 years, Maser, Amundson & Boggio, P.A. attorneys have skillfully advised and represented clients at all stages of life with elder law planning, special needs planning and litigation. Our core values of compassion, leadership, community, and innovation guide our practice. We prioritize relationships over transactions, and our team is deeply committed to serving as a resource and advocate for seniors and families with special needs over their lifetimes.

Maser, Amundson & Boggio, P.A. has earned a reputation for providing competent legal advice and judgement with recognition at a state and national level including the Minnesota Super Lawyers list and Best Lawyers on US News & World Report.
