Planning for the life you deserve.

BRENNA M. GALVIN Shareholder and Attorney at Law

Brenna M. Galvin is a co-managing shareholder at Maser, Amundson & Boggio, P.A. As an elder law attorney, she supports seniors, individuals with disabilities, and their families as they navigate care needs and how to finance them. By focusing on the client and their personal story, goals, and values, Brenna is able to offer customized resources that enhance their quality of life and provide them comfort in knowing that they have "planned for the worst, so they can live their best."

Drawing inspiration from personal experiences, Brenna understands that planning extends beyond the bounds of a law office and requires clients to have critical conversations about both their life and end-of-life wishes. By building trust, she is better able to advocate for her clients and put together plans that address their worries.

In order to provide a truly holistic approach to planning, Brenna became an end-of-life doula in 2019. She is also the co-founder of Inspired Departures. Their mission is to inspire individuals to have open conversations about death and dying and take action to create a meaningful end-of-life plan. By approaching death differently, we begin to live life more fully.

Brenna is a graduate of the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Political Science, and William Mitchell College of Law for her Juris Doctor. Brenna is an active member of the local community and is involved in local and national professional organizations.

When Brenna is not working, you can find her reading furiously, exploring the North Shore, rowing on the Mississippi River, roaming farmers markets and art museums, and attending concerts and plays throughout the Cities.
